

The Best Practices of Yingli College Social Work/Cleanliness Drive

Social work is one of the Best Practices of Yingli College. Social work here means to keep the surroundings neat and clean and thus maintain a healthy atmosphere. Following are the objectives of the practice:

- Protect the environment and create environmental awareness by participation.
- To enable healthy relationship with one another by rendering assistance to the community.
- To inculcate dignity of labor in the students and to provide quality education not just based on curriculum but for all round development.
- To make an individual use his /her ability for self development and contribute to the community for a better tomorrow.
- Through these activities the institution aims to bring a change in environment and the physical health of an individual.

SEMINARS

Intellectual Development through active participation in seminars is another Best Practice of Yingli College. This is a healthy practice of Yingli College in the area of Teaching- Learning. Active participation of teachers and students in seminars and conferences nowadays has become essential. The college organizes seminars now and then keeping in mind of the following objectives.

- To create awareness on issues related to curriculum, environment and health among the students
- To train and develop a positive attitude amongst students to solve any upcoming challenges
- To enhance and upgrade the knowledge of students with latest technical knowhow
- To provide opportunities to the researchers and students to exchange view and opinions
- To encourage the young teachers to undertake research work and publish research papers
- To organize college, state and national level seminars to give a unique environment to the students other than classroom seminars, so that students can learn more effectively and efficiently. It also helps to boost their confidence.
