Seminar on “Women Issues and Challenges”

Women Development Cell organized a seminar on “Women Issues and Challenges” on 20 September 2019. The programme was chaired by the Ms. Toshila of 5th semester followed by a keynote address by Mrs. Vangngoi Phom, Assistant Professor, Department of Education and vote of thanks was given by Miss Chumei from 3rd semester. There were three resource persons for the said programme.

1. Dr. Vizolenuo Sophie spoke on “Dignity of women in the society”. She shorted with the definition of dignity, which means the state or quality of being worth of honour or respect. Sophie is of the view that women were not respected as it supposed to be but rather they were discriminated in every walk of life. She said that even in the field of education, health issues, politics and even economics. Women were always considered secondary person. So, in order to overcome all these, one should be educated, as through education we can achieve honour and respect and women can also have a say in all decision-making at home as well as in the society.
2. Dr. Toli Achumi – “Sexual harassment”
Dr. Toli, talked on various kind of sexual harassment and how to overcome it when such situation arises in one’s life.
3. Mrs. Konchem – “Health and hygiene”
Mrs. Konchem gave a talk on health and hygiene. By maintaining a healthy hygiene we can keep one’s health in good condition and can prevent various sicknesses.
All together there were 57 participants out of which 50 female students and 7 female teachers.

Hostel Visit by the Members of Students' Welfare Committee of Yingli College

On 23rd October 2019 the members of Yingli College Students' Welfare Committee visited the hostel of Phom Lempong School, which is about three kilometres away from the college. The hostel has a total of 90 boarders, mostly from poor economic background and ten of them are orphans. The hostel is run by the Phom Baptist Christian Association (PBCA). The Association usually generate its income from individual well wishers and from different villages. Apart from the orphans many of the children are from broken homes. The visit was a part of the college outreach program with Yingli College Students' Welfare Committee at the helm. There was interaction with the students about their family background, economic status, the challenges that they faced and the dreams that they nurtured. The warden and the support staff also shared their problems and also their achievements and were encouraged by the visit and hoped that it will be a bond that will grow in the days to come too. The college welfare committee offered some help to the hostellers in the form of food, stationery and it was an initiation for a better tomorrow. The hostel is 20 years old and has produced many upright citizens who are currently serving as employees in both government and private sectors and so an achievement for the school. Yingli College pledged to be a part of the growth of the hostel and the school for the betterment of the society.
