Seminar on “Women Issues and Challenges”

Women Development Cell organized a seminar on “Women Issues and Challenges” on 20 September 2019. The programme was chaired by the Ms. Toshila of 5th semester followed by a keynote address by Mrs. Vangngoi Phom, Assistant Professor, Department of Education and vote of thanks was given by Miss Chumei from 3rd semester. There were three resource persons for the said programme.

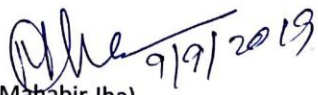

1. Dr. Vizolenuo Sophie spoke on “Dignity of women in the society”. She shorted with the definition of dignity, which means the state or quality of being worth of honour or respect. Sophie is of the view that women were not respected as it supposed to be but rather they were discriminated in every walk of life. She said that even in the field of education, health issues, politics and even economics. Women were always considered secondary person. So, in order to overcome all these, one should be educated, as through education we can achieve honour and respect and women can also have a say in all decision-making at home as well as in the society.
2. Dr. Toli Achumi – “Sexual harassment”
Dr. Toli, talked on various kind of sexual harassment and how to overcome it when such situation arises in one’s life.
3. Mrs. Konchem – “Health and hygiene”
Mrs. Konchem gave a talk on health and hygiene. By maintaining a healthy hygiene we can keep one’s health in good condition and can prevent various sicknesses.
All together there were 57 participants out of which 50 female students and 7 female teachers.
